III. DISCUSSION / ACTION ITEMS

1. Recreation Summer Camp Program Status

Parks and Recreation Director Darcy Little went over in detail with the Board her plans and curriculums for the summer camp program and her plans for slowly bringing some programs back to the community center. Director Little will be adhering to the state guidelines as set forth for summer camp programs and small group exercise classes.

Selectman Marshall offered his services to Director Little if she needed assistance with sample protocols in case a camper becomes ill with COVID-19.

Vice Chair commended Director Little for all her hard work.

2. Town Buildings Reopening Planning Status

Town Manager Stack discussed with the Board his memo dated June 1, 2020 concerning the status of the departments and Town Operation.

Municipal Building: New protocols have been put in place, including wearing a face mask in the common areas. All departments are fully staffed except for the Community Development Department.

Town Clerk/Tax Collector: The layout of the that office has been changed to accommodate all employees, while taking social distancing into consideration. They will be open on June 3, 2020 by appointment only for new vehicle registrations only.

Community Development: Right now, there is only two people staffed in the department at a time and on a rotating schedule. Starting June 8, 2020, they will have all staff. Their office has undergone the necessary changes to adhere to social distancing.

Parks and Recreation: Currently the Community Building is closed to the public; the office staff is reporting to the library. The office within the community building has undergone renovations to accommodate proper social distancing. Small classes will begin adhering to state guidelines.

Athletic Fields: The state has issued guidelines for youth sports. BAC sports teams will be able to reserve and use the fields at this time.

Playgrounds: The playgrounds remain closed.

Mike Conroy, 19 Hooksett Turnpike, Mr. Conroy shared his concerns with the Board regarding the liability to the Town if the playgrounds were to open.
